Activities

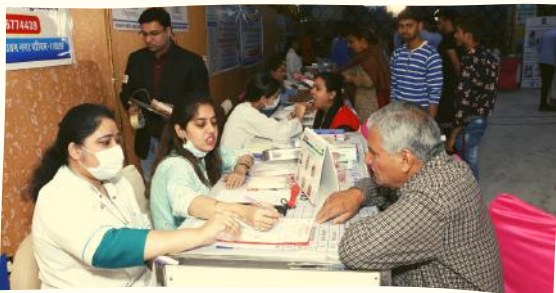

ACC NIELIT

Government approved computer courses were commenced in many schools. In this awareness programme 125 students were admitted. Over here while also fulfilling the main aim of the programme, the trainers motivated and encouraged the students to actively participate in these courses to learn new skills. All of the 125 students completed their course successfully.

HEALTH AND SANITATION AWARENESS PROGRAMME

ONGC organized a Health and Sanitation Awareness Programme. This was organized in various schools like Happy Child Model School, Moon Light School, Sat Saheb Public School and Satyam Public School. It was also organized for the people living in Mohan Garden Anganwadi 95 and Industrial Area of Matiyala. Overall 10000+ people were made aware through this programme. Also, two health mega camps were also organized with collaboration with 15 hospitals. Free checkups were provided to people. These mega camps had a footfall of approximately 800 local people. Mohit Soni, Manish Sharma, Ms. Bela and Mr. Inder Jeet actively participated in this programme. Zee News covered this event.

ORGANIC FESTIVAL

Organic Festival was organized under The Ministry of Women Child Development by the Government of India. This festival encourages women entrepreneurs and farmers to connect with buyers as well as empower Indian women through financial inclusion. It also promotes organic food produce in India. We have participated five times in this festival which was in different states of India i.e.Gujarat, Delhi, Chandigarh and Haryana. We sold a product named Green Peacock which is an organic tea. Mrs. Kanchan,Executive Board member represented Social Education and Liberty Foundation in this organic festival.

PADS DISTRIBUTION IN LOCAL AREAS

Sanitary Pads were distributed to many women under the project “Snapdeal”. This project covered many areas like Anganwadi, Anganwadi Bhagwati Vihar, Najafgarg, Najafgarh Gaon, Nawada Centre and Shahdara Centre. Even all the women in those areas were made aware about all the benefits of using a sanitary pad and disadvantages of not using one.

SEXUAL HARASSMENT OF WOMEN AT WORKPLACE

All over the year “Sexual Harassment project has taken place at different places and time in Delhi. In 2018, this programme covered Bindapur (Nawada) and Bharti College (Janakpuri). In 2019, it took place in Dr. Bhim Rao Ambedkar College and Delhi Metropolitan Education (Noida Sector-62). This project was run by The Ministry of Women Child and Development Govt. of India. Mukul, Nabira Farman, Jasmine Siddiqui and Diksha were the interns who handled the programme successfully. In this programme the students were made aware about their rights according to the Sexual Harassment Act, 2013. Approximately 486 students benefitted from this programme.

STATIONERY KIT DISTRIBUTION TO KIDS

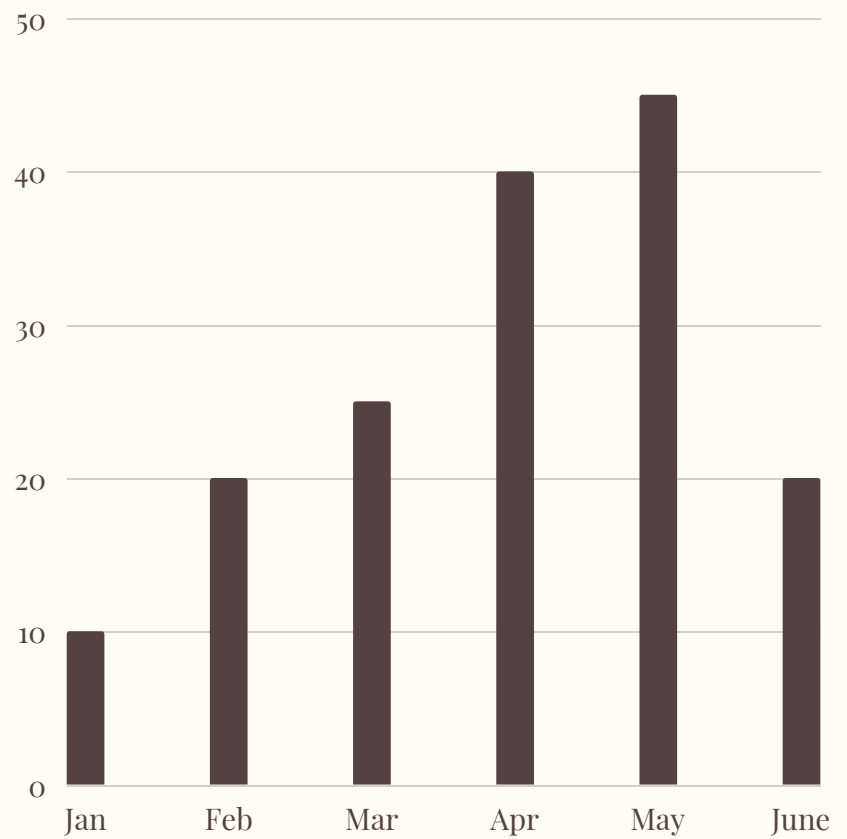

Stationery Kits were distributed to children under the project “Snapdeal”. This project covered many areas like Industrial Area (Matiyala Extension), Anganwadi (Uttam Nagar), Karol Bagh slum area and Moon Light School. More than 800 children benefitted from this distribution. This was a very encouraging step to keep the children engaged in their studies and work hard. Children were very excited to get those kits.
